MGR. LEE'S BODY TO LIE IN STATE

Requiem Mass Here Tomorrow, With Burial at Baltimore.

The funeral of the late Mgr. Thomas Lee, rector of St. Matthew's Roman Catholic Church, on Rhode Island avenue, who died Friday morning at 6 o'clock at the home of his niece, Miss Horsey, at Needlewood, Md., after a brief illness, will be held at St. Matthew's Church tomorrow morning.

The body of the dead prelate arrived at the rectory of the church, 1729 Rhode Island avenue, yesterday morning at 9 o'clock and was placed upon a couch in the main parlor to the left of the entrance. The body is attired in the vestments of a priest celebrating mass and in the hands is clasped a chalice. The robes of a monsignor were not used, as it had been the expressed wish of the dead prelate that his funeral ceremonies be made as simple as possible.

This afternoon the body will be taken from the rectory, under guard of an honorary escort, made up of members of the congregation, and carried to the church of St. Matthew's Church, where it will lie in state until tomorrow morning, when the funeral services will commence.

While the body lies in state in the spacious edifice communicants of the congregation, clergy and friends of the deceased will pass the hour and do homage to the distinguished monsignor. The guard of honor will be made up from members of the Holy Name Society, the Catholic Welfare Council, nuns from Holy Cross and others from similar organizations. All through Sunday night, while the body lies in state in the church, prayers will be said by those assigned to that duty from the clergy.

Commencing promptly tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock, solemn high mass of requiem will be celebrated, preceded at 9 o'clock by the singing of the offices of the dead, which will be sung by Mgr. Thomas, rector of St. Patrick's Church. The vested choir of St. Matthew's Church will sing, the Gregorian music being used.

High Mass of Requiem.
The solemn high mass of requiem will be celebrated, with Rev. Thomas Kerk, rector of Holy Name Church, as deacon. The subdeacon will be Rev. Charles Bart, rector of St. Theresa's Church, who was a former assistant rector of St. Matthew's Church under Mgr. Lee. The celebrant of the mass has not been selected.

The apostolic delegate will preside, accompanied by two deacons of honor whose names have not been announced. They will be clergymen of the highest order, probably Mgr. Whelan and Devine of Baltimore. Conducting Bishop Corrigan of the Baltimore diocese is expected to attend the ceremonies as the representative of Archbishop Curley, who at this time is absent from the country.

The honorary pallbearers, who will be made up of members of the clergy, and the bodybearers, who will be made up of members of the congregation of St. Matthew's Church, have not been announced.

Burial in Bonnie Brier.
The interment will be in the family plot in Bonnie Brier cemetery, Baltimore. Immediately after the conclusion of the mass the body, accompanied by a delegation of distinguished members of the Washington clergy and the church notables officially attending the funeral, will accompany the body to the cemetery. A delegation of representative members of the Baltimore clergy and men prominent in Catholic circles in the Monumental city will meet the body at the station and escort it to the cemetery.

A special detail of a picked squad of members of the metropolitan police department will be on duty prior to and during the funeral services tomorrow morning.

Mgr. Lee was personally known to a large number of the churchmen, professional, business men of the city, men high in local and federal government, life, officers of the Army, Navy and Marine Corps, members of Congress, members of the bar and higher courts, members of the Protestant and Hebrew churches, who probably will attend the celebration of the solemn high mass of requiem.

EQUAL RIGHTS VICTORIES
WOMAN'S PARTY TOPIC

Meeting Tomorrow to Discuss Recently Ended Discriminations in Virginia.

The "victories for equal rights" achieved by the National Woman's Party at the 1922 session of the Virginia legislature will be discussed at a meeting tomorrow evening at the party headquarters.

Mrs. Gertrude James Roby of Purcellville, Va., will be the principal speaker and will recount her personal experiences with the bill. Miss Lacey, member of the legal research department of the Women's Party, will discuss the legal discrimination against women in the professions and Miss Eleanor Branham will tell of the progress made by the party workers in Georgia and Missouri.

Briefly the "equal rights" legislation passed in Virginia provides: That dower and courtesy be made equal; married women be given the right to choose their own voting domicile; the mother be given equal rights with the father to inherit from their deceased child; the grandmother be given equal rights with the grandfather to inherit from their deceased child; and that letters of administration be granted on the basis of inheritance of personal property. Since women were given the right to inherit on the same terms as men, women now have the same rights as men with regard to administration.

OUTING AIDS CHILDREN.
Thirty Found Under Normal Weight Are Gaining Fast.

Camp Good Will, in Rock Creek Park, and Camp Pleasant, at Blue Plains, are filled with over 100 orphan and children who went out to the resorts last week. In the party were thirty children more than seven months of age and one lacking seventeen pounds of being normal. These children are under the special care of the nurses of the nutrition clinic, who state that even in this short time they are making favorable progress.
